Mission

To help travelers discover the world's most exceptional hotel swimming pools through data-driven rankings and expert curation — because the right pool can transform a trip from good to unforgettable.

How We Rank

Each pool is evaluated on a proprietary set of criteria including views and setting, design and architecture, exclusivity, water quality, guest experience, and overall wow factor. Rankings draw on aggregated guest reviews from major travel platforms, on-site research, and editorial assessment. We accept no payment for ranking or placement — every position is earned.
